

The Tribe Weekly Newsletter

This week's parashot are Acharei Mot and Kedoshim

Shabbat Times in London

Shabbat begins: 8.09pm

Shabbat ends: 9.19pm

This week, there are once again two Parashot; Acharei Mot and Kedoshim.

Following the deaths of Nadav and Avihu, two of Aharon's (Aaron's) four sons, God told Aharon (Aaron) that only a Kohen Gadol (High Priest) would be allowed to enter the Kodesh Kodashim (The Holy of Holies) in the Mishkan (Tabernacle) and only on Yom Kippur. The Kodesh Kodashim (The Holy of Holies) was the holiest part of the Mishkan which housed the Ark.

The Parasha (Weekly Torah Portion) of Acharei Mot continues to focus on the day of Yom Kippur (The Day of Atonement) and describes the service of the casting of lots over two goats. The lots determined which goat should be offered to God and which should be taken out to the wilderness, to carry away the sins of the Children of Israel.

Acharei Mot also tells the Jewish people to only bring an offering in the Holy Temple. It also makes clear that blood is forbidden to be eaten.

The Parshah of Kedoshim lists dozens of Mitzvot (Commands) through which a Jewish man or woman can make themselves holy and can therefore appreciate the holiness of God.

These Mitzvot (Commands) include not worshipping idols, the giving of charity, Shabbat, honesty in business, looking up to one's parents and the holiness of life itself.

One of the most famous Mitzvot (Commands) in Kedoshim is to; 'Love Your Fellow as Yourself'. The great sage, Rabbi Akiva said that this is the most important rule of the Torah and he had to remind his students to not only respect each other, but to also respect each other's points of view.

Song for Shabbat

Here is a link to a song you can play before Shabbat and sing together on Shabbat.

Joshua Aaron -Shalom!

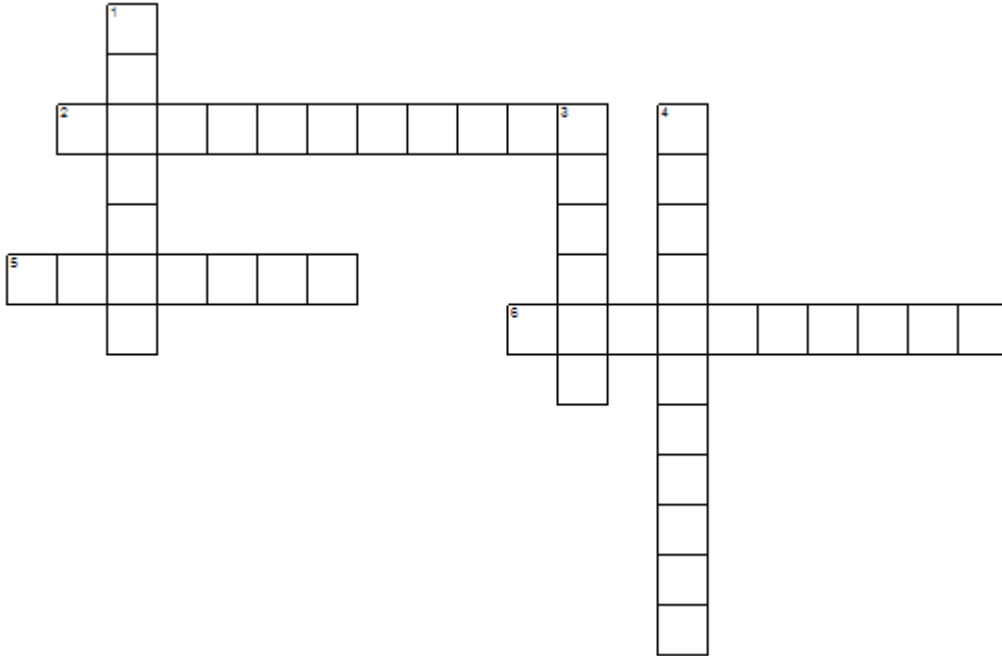

<https://www.bing.com/videos/search?q=shabbat+songs&&view=detail&mid=AB3689A416AF9F329579AB3689A416AF9F329579&&FORM=VDR>

VRV

Family Crossword Challenge!

You'll find all the words in the Parasha summary above (if there is a 2-word answer, there will be a blank square between the 2 words)

Across

- 2. One who said respect is so important
- 5. given to poor and needy
- 6. Holiest day of Jewish year

Down

- 1. Seventh day of the week
- 3. High Priest in wilderness
- 4. Offering brought only there

Answers at the end of the Newsletter

Unscramble These Words From The Parasha

(use the clues to help you)

OLHISESN

CRTESPE

GOFENFRI

TMZTIVO

YHNSTOE

'And You Shall Love Your Neighbour...'

Story 1 - A Neighbour in Need!

When a homeless man walked into Cesia Abigail Restaurant, in America, asking for money, the owner refused to give him any.

Now you might think this is heartless, but in fact, Cesia had something better in mind!

She asked the homeless man why he didn't have a job, to which he responded that his past was preventing him from changing his future.

"Well, I have done a lot of things I shouldn't have done in the past and no one wants to employ me because of that. So now I had to turn myself to the streets and get money the only way I know, begging, stealing and asking for money."

Instead of giving him money, Cesia gave him a job!!

Story 2 – The Waiter Never Saw it Coming!

When a restaurant customer noticed his waiter, named Johnny, was having a particularly difficult day, he responded in a way that most wouldn't.

Rather than calling over a manager or leaving Johnny some small, measly tip to prove a point, the diner summoned his waiter over to the table and gave him a £100!

"You just paid off my car sir," said the grateful young man as he stood there weeping in shock! He was just so grateful.

THE TRIBE SCRIBE

ACHAREI MOT AND KEDOSHIM: CHOC HORROR!

Page Editor and Writer: Rabbi Nicky Goldmeier Cartoonist: Paul Solomons

I JUST LOVE THOSE STRAWBERRY CHOCOLATE BARS. THEY ARE JUST SO YUMMY!

YES, I AGREE THEY ARE SO TASTY. THEY TASTE LIKE HEAVEN! BUT WE MUST REMEMBER WHAT DR. SHINE THE DENTIST TOLD US, 'NO CHOCOLATE BEFORE BED!'

WE'LL SEE ABOUT THAT. I'LL POST SOME CHOCOLATES THROUGH THEIR LETTER BOX TOMORROW AT 8PM, JUST AFTER THEY'VE CLEANED THEIR TEETH! CACKLE!

The next evening...

WOW, OUR FAVOURITE!

HOLD ON! WE'VE JUST BRUSHED OUR TEETH.

BUT THEY ARE JUST SO TASTY. IT WON'T MATTER IF WE HAVE THEM JUST THIS ONCE.

THEY WON'T BE ABLE TO SAY NO TO THESE DELICIOUS CHOCOLATES.

I AGREE, IT'S SO TEMPTING!

BUT WHAT WOULD MUM AND DAD SAY AND WHAT WOULD DR. SHINE, OUR DENTIST, SAY?

NO, WE WON'T EAT THEM. WE MUSTN'T EAT THEM. WE WILL PUT THEM IN THE FRIDGE SO THEY DON'T MELT AND SAVE THEM FOR TOMORROW.

IN THE SECOND PARASHA THIS WEEK, KEDOSHIM, WE ARE TOLD NOT TO CAUSE SOMEONE TO DO SOMETHING BAD. SORRY DR. TSORIS, BUT DAN AND DINA ARE TOO GOOD TO FALL FOR THAT ONE.

IT WAS A NICE TRY DR. TSORIS, BUT YOU'RE NOT GOING TO PERSUADE US TO DO SOMETHING WRONG.

©Tribe 2020. All Rights Reserved.

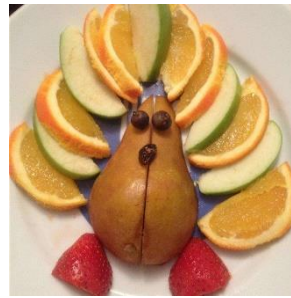

Tribe is the Young People's Department of the United Synagogue: Creating a future for our community through engaging, educating and inspiring the next generation.

Recipe of the week

Kid's fun fruit turkey

Ingredients (Serves: 2)

- 1 pear
- 4 raisins
- 4 whole dried apricots
- 1 sweet eating apple, cored and cut into thin wedges
- 1 1/4 (540g) tins grapefruit segments, well drained

Prep:20mins Ready in:20min

Most of the fruit will need to be sliced, so always have an adult with you when preparing this recipe

1. Slice the pear in half lengthways, core, remove the stem and set each half on a plate with the cut side down. This is the body of the turkey. Cut 2 raisins in half to make 4 eyes and set the eyes onto the narrower part of the pear. Cut a small slice from one end of the 2 remaining raisins and stick a raisin below the eyes to make beaks.
2. Trim the dried apricots into 4 feet with 3 fat toes and place two feet at the bottom of each pear. Arrange apple wedges alternating with grapefruit sections in a fan shape around the top of the turkey, for feathers.

ENJOY!

Answer Sheet

Family Crossword Challenge

Across

- 2. Rabbi Akiva
- 5. Charity
- 6. Yom Kippur

Down

- 1. Shabbat
- 3. Aharon
- 4. Holy Temple

Unscramble the Words

Holiness, Respect, Offering, Mitzvot, Honesty

Shabbat Shalom! From everyone at Tribe