

THE TRIBE SCRIBE

SHEMOT: WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Writer: Shira Chalk, Cartoonist: Paul Solomon

Page Editor: Sharon Radley

JESSICA, JEROME, JULIA, JONAH, JED, WHERE'S JONNY?

JONNY HASN'T COME BACK FROM BREAK.

JACK, ELLA, DEBBIE, SETH - IS EVERYONE HERE? LET'S HOLD HANDS - WE DON'T WANT TO LOSE ANYONE.

THIS WEEK'S PARASHA IS CALLED SHEMOT WHICH LITERALLY MEANS NAMES. THE PARASHA BEGINS BY LISTING EACH OF THE SONS OF YAAKOV BY NAME. RASHI EXPLAINS THAT CALLING SOMEONE BY THEIR NAME SHOWS HOW PRECIOUS AND LOVED THEY ARE.

WHEN WE CALL SOMEONE BY NAME WE SHOW THAT WE HAVE NOTICED WHO THEY ARE AND CARE ABOUT THEM.

tribe
www.tribeuk.com

Tribes is the Young People's Department of the United Synagogue: Creating a future for our community through engaging, educating and inspiring the next generation.