This week's Tribe Summer is back! And it's my favourite time of year! We are quickly approaching the start of our summer programme, and this will be my sixth year as a leader on camp! My role may have changed through the years, but one thing is for sure, you'll still hear me singing 'Hey, hey, bob didaly bob' in the next village over. Whether you're on camp in the UK, Belgium, the USA or Israel, you're in for the summer of a lifetime.

This week's parasha, Pinchas, focuses on leadership. Leadership is at the core of what makes our summer programmes great! Firstly, without our madrichim (leaders) we would simply be unable to pull off our activities and trips. We also ask them to lead from the front, and share in our three aims of inspiring, engaging and educating. Our madrichim plan all our activities and bring their exciting ideas to the fore in this environment - they're passionate about their Judaism and are keen to share their experiences.

I want to take this opportunity to share some of my favourite memories of past trips, whether that was playing beach cricket, dancing with the Chief Rabbi during a lunchtime, meeting Mickey Mouse in Paris, singing during mealtimes and so much more! Tribe camp not only provides epic activities but also provides the opportunity to meet new people and make friends for life.

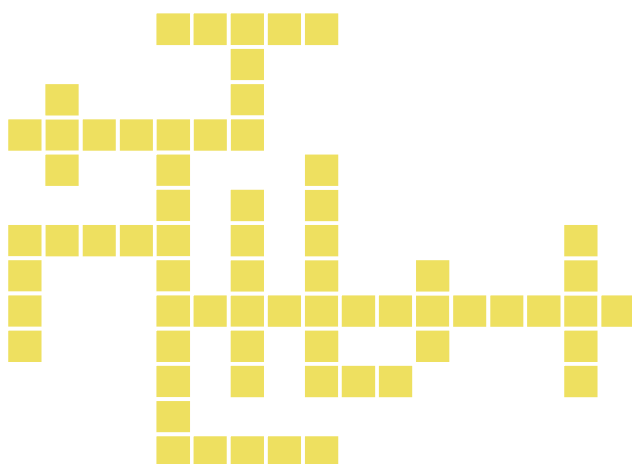

I met some of my closest friends today on Tribe Summer programmes. We want to offer you the opportunity to not only feel comfortable with what you do now but also feel comfortable trying new things. The education on camp is engaging and interesting and really provides an opportunity to get involved.

Whether you're joining us or thinking about joining us, we cannot wait to see you, on what promises to be an epic summer, filled with epic activities such as climbing the Empire State building, going on rides in Alton Towers, meeting Mickey Mouse in Paris or going on a day trip to Amsterdam!

If you're interested in coming on a Tribe trip or being a madrich on our upcoming programmes, please get in touch at info@tribeuk.com
