

Nearly 150 children enjoy “best half-term ever” with Tribe

144 children from across the community enjoyed 4 different days out with Tribe last week. The action-packed programme for the February half-term included Shrek's Adventure, Spy Missions, Kidzania and Vire virtual reality. The trips, for years 4-6, were run by professional staff from Tribe, the United Synagogue's young people department.

Ten-year-old Amelie from Hendon said: “Kidzania was awesome. I really loved being a fashion advisor and also going in the radio studio to interview my friends about their day. I think I want to be a journalist. Thank you Tribe for the best half term ever.” Gabrielle added: “I had a great day out and it was great being with my friends and making new ones. Thanks for taking me.”

Parent Jenny Noimark said: “My children had an absolutely fantastic day out with Tribe at Cloud 9 and Spy Mission. They said it was the highlight of their half term week! I was particularly pleased with the care and consideration Tribe showed, ensuring the children were looked after throughout and any allergies were taken care of. Thank you so much!”

Tamara Jacobson, Tribe’s Head of Operations, said: “The team built a popular and varied programme to keep our younger members busy over half-term. We are now putting the finishing touches to our summer programmes which include Israel Tour and camps in England, Scotland and Belgium. Our Learn to Lead trip to New York was so popular for Year 10s last year we're bringing it back and I'm particularly excited about our first ever social responsibility trip to Rwanda.”
