

Record turnout for Young US' Friday Night Dinner series

Young US hosted 180 people at their biggest ever United Friday Night Dinner in as part of Shabbat UK at JW3. This dinner is the ninth in the last year at various locations in North West London and is the first to be held at JW3.

Attendees were treated to a wonderful meal and entertainment by Moe Mernick, a Rabbi and entrepreneur who spoke about overcoming personal challenges in order to achieve greatness, combined with a relaxed atmosphere where they got to enjoy the company of other guests.

The evening was organised in conjunction with Hampstead US, South Hampstead US, St. John's Wood US and Western Marble Arch US.

Speaking about the Friday Night Dinner, David Collins Director of Jewish Living said: “Our United Friday Night Dinners, which are a partnership with our communities, keep growing in reputation and demand and I’m delighted that so many want to be a part of these wonderful occasions. They are truly inspiring and engaging evenings which leave those who attend with the amazing taste of Shabbat. We look forward to hosting them and their friends again in the near future.

Date Uploaded: Friday 3rd November 2017

Source

URL: <https://www.tribeuk.com/article/record-turnout-young-us%E2%80%99-friday-night-dinner-series>