

Secondary School Programmes

The Tribe education department works closely with our schools, chadarim and communities, as well as internally with madrichim to develop the Jewish education provided to our participants.

We provide training, programmes and resources in various forms throughout our community and welcome you to make contact regarding how we can support our children in your organisation

Programmes in schools include.

- Lunch & Learn sessions - Local Rabbis go into schools to run learning sessions over lunch times with students.
- Jewish Activities in Mainstream Schools (JAMS) In conjunction with UJIA, inspiring speakers from across the United Synagogue go to mainstream schools to run exciting learning sessions with students.
