

Tribe's 'Snow-Tastic' Half-Term

Last week, over 50 children enjoyed an action-packed trip with Tribe to the Snow Centre in Hemel Hempstead.

The sold-out event took place during half-term and was for primary school children in school years 5 & 6.

Wrapping up warm, all participants enjoyed a fantastic fun-filled day of sledging. There were also engaging team-game sessions run by the Tribe Shinshiniot (Israeli Fieldworkers), which took place in between sledging activities.

Yael Peleg, Tribe's Director of Operations, said: "Following on from previous successful days out run by Tribe, we were delighted to run yet another hugely popular half-term programme. The atmosphere was wonderful and we look forward to repeating such success in our future events".

Speaking about the trip, Tribe Fieldworker, Sam Cohen, said: "It was an amazing day, filled with exciting activities from start to finish. It was great to see Tribe kids from different schools and communities come together during half-term to enjoy a brilliant event with us at Tribe".
