

Tribe enhance the Mitzvah of Mishloach Manot

This Purim Tribe produced Mishloach Manot boxes which were distributed to Jewish primary schools and chadarim. Three sides of the boxes had a picture of one of the mitzvot of Purim and the fourth was left blank for the children to fill in their own Purim message or picture. Once completed, the boxes were either used in school or were taken home so that the children could perform the mitzvah at home. Some communities also used these boxes. Below you can see a photo of the boxes.
