
Tribe in Israel

Tribe Israel runs many programmes for British students on their gap year in Israel. They will welcome you with their annual 'Picnic in the Park' event, will make sure that you can see your friends as well as making new ones through their social events and will even help you with essential skills like public speaking through TILT (Tribe Israel Leadership Training).

Tribe Israel Events

The Tribe Israel team hosts a number of events for British students on their gap year. These include an annual Shabbaton, Picnic in the Park, inspirational talks and discussions with fascinating individuals, concerts and more. Events are open to all students, both members and non members of Tribe regardless of what gap year programme they are on. To be added to the Tribe mailing list, please email Gaby Godfrey in the Tribe Israel Office at gabygodfrey@tribeuk.com [1]

Israel Learn 2 Lead

Israel Learn 2 Lead is Tribe's leadership training programme for people on their gap year in Israel. The course commences in January, with five sessions spread over four months. They provide students with the tools to become the next leaders of their generation on their return to the UK. The sessions cover important topics such as youth leadership, Israel Advocacy, counselling skills and Jewish education and feature guest speakers who are experts in their field. If you are interested in joining while on your gap year, please email gabygodfrey@tribeuk.com [1].
