NOACH: OLD NEWS!

THIS WEEK'S PARASHA STARS NOACH WHO LIVED TO BE OVER 900 YEARS OLD! WHOA THAT'S OLD! BUT DID YOU KNOW THAT THERE WERE LOTS OF PEOPLE IN THE TORAH THAT LIVED WAAAAAY LONGER THAN ANYONE WE KNOW? IN THE TIME OF THE TORAH IT WAS NORMAL TO LIVE MUCH LONGER THAN WE ARE USED TO. EVER HEARD SOMEONE SAY "MAY YOU LIVE TO 120!"? THAT'S A BLESSING THAT WE GET FROM THE LIFE OF ONE OF OUR GREATEST LEADERS. FOR MORE INFO, CHECK OUT THE AGE-O-METER.

UH-OH! THE EVIL DR TSORIS HAS FILLED THE AGE-O-METER WITH SOAP AND NOW WE CAN'T GET THE INFO IN ORDER. USE THE CLUES TO HELP US PIECE TOGETHER WHO LIVED TO WHICH AWESOME AGE AND WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT THEM.

CLUES

We bless people to live to 120, which is not the age that Noach lived.

Sarah, who was the first of the Imahot (Mothers), did not live the longest.

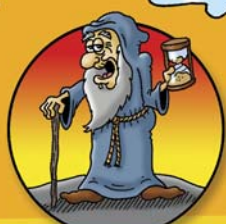

Adam, who was the first ever human, lived more than nine centuries.

The survivor of the Flood died at age 950.

Sarah had her first child when she was 90 and she lived more than 30 years longer.

Metushelach was the grandfather of Noach and lived longer than him.

Moshe was not present at the time of the Flood, nor was he the first human being.

Answers: Adam - 930 - First human | Noach - 127 - First of the Imahot Mothers | Moshe - 950 - Survived the Flood | Metushelach - 969 - Oldest person | Sarah - 120 - Blessing for life
